Endless Mountains Dance Center Policies, Holidays, & Dress Code

- Absolutely NO CELL PHONES in the dance rooms!
- Dancers should be dressed and ready to begin BEFORE the appointed start time of class. If dancers are not on time, they must wait by the door until the music is paused before stepping onto the dance floor; this is to eliminate distractions to dancers who arrive on time.
- Dancers are expected to have good attendance. If a student has poor attendance it will affect his/her position in recital dances.
- Dancers and parents are expected to be respectful to instructors as well as all students and families of EMDC. Anyone who is disrespectful or disruptive will be asked to meet with the studio director to discuss our policies and expectations. In addition, EMDC has a strict NO BULLYING policy in order to maintain a healthy environment in our studio. We reserve the right to take disciplinary actions including expulsion from our classes and programming as deemed necessary.
